Integration Capital & Trade Inc., Joins Gulf Industry Associations

6 June 2006 - Integration Capital & Trade Inc., a cross border investment bank with headquarters in New York and offices throughout the Gulf, recently joined two prominent trade associations within the Gulf region. ICT is now a full member of The Arabian Knowledge Economy Association (AKEA), an association created to promote innovation, entrepreneurship and technology ultimately leading to economic sustainability and growth throughout the Middle East. Along with AKEA, ICT has become a member in the GVCA, an organization looking to foster growth in the budding private equity and venture capital industries in the region. ICT team members have made numerous presentations on entrepreneurship and private equity and are looking forward to utilizing the organizations' platforms. The associations and ICT anticipate mutual benefits of membership in these groups as they strive to develop the economies of a region flush with opportunity.
